For Immediate Release:

On Sunday, March 5th at 3:00pm, the Opera Western Reserve Young Artists will present Jack and the Beanstalk in the Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom at Stambaugh Auditorium. Tickets for this event are on sale now through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office.

Follow Jack's adventure atop a magical beanstalk, where our hero finds himself in a confrontation with an impolite oaf. The audience will learn about the importance of acceptance of people who may be different than themselves. This performance is adapted from music by Gilbert and Sullivan, Victorian-era theatrical partners, who created works such as The Pirates of Penzance and The Mikado.

This educational and entertaining production is appropriate for children of all ages. At the conclusion, the cast will meet and interact with the audience. The show features stage direction by Robert Pierce and musical direction by Jon Simsic.

The Opera Western Reserve Young Artists travel around the tri-county area to perform at local schools. Their regular programs include "Fun with Opera," which is an interactive performance where students help to create the scenario for a one-of-a-kind improvised opera.

Opera Western Reserve (OWR) presents the only locally-produced, professional opera in the area with an annual performance at Stambaugh Auditorium each November. Previous performances include 2015's The Elixir of Love, 2016's Carmen, and, in November 2017, Lucia di Lammermoor. For more information on OWR, visit operawesternreserve.org.

Tickets for Jack and the Beanstalk are available now through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. For more information or for tickets, visit stambaughauditorium.com or call 330-259-0555. The Box Office is open Monday-Friday, 9am-6pm and Saturday 10am-2pm.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (Anne K. Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional events many of which use the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office to sell and distribute tickets. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
