For Immediate Release:

On Sunday, September 30, Stambaugh Auditorium will present British rock band Bush. Tickets for the multi-platinum selling band led by Gavin Rossdale, will go on sale this morning at 10:00 AM. Reserved seats range in ticket price from $40-$60 plus applicable fees.

In 1994, Bush found immediate success with the release of their debut album, Sixteen Stone. By the end of December, Bush's "Everything Zen" video had landed in MTV's Buzz Bin and the album began to take off; by spring of 1995, the record had achieved gold certification. Other hits from the band's debut album include "Comedown," "Glycerine," "Little Things," and "Machinehead." Bush was the first post-Nirvana British band to have success in the states.

Although, the band broke up in 2002, they reformed in 2010, and have since released three albums: The Sea of Memories (2011), Man on the Run (2014), and Black and White Rainbows (2017). The current members include, Gavin Rossdale (Vocals/Guitar), Robin Goodridge (Drums), Chris Traynor (Guitar), and Corey Britz (Bass).

Tickets for the 7:30 PM show will be sold through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. Order by phone at 330-259-0555, online at stambaughauditorium.com, or in person. The box office is open Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium, which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall, which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (Anne K. Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional events many of which use the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office to sell and distribute tickets. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
