For Immediate Release:

Jay Leno will be live on stage at Stambaugh Auditorium on Sunday, October 21 at 7:30 PM, presented by Stambaugh Auditorium and SRO Promotions. Tickets will go on sale this Friday, August 3 at 10:00 AM. Reserved seats range in ticket price from $45-$85 plus applicable fees.

Jay Leno dominated late night television for more than two decades on air with “The Tonight Show with Jay Leno,” ending in 2014 when he passed the torch of succession to Jimmy Fallon. The automotive aficionado then found himself with a successful primetime series, “Jay Leno’s Garage” on CNBC, of which he is a producer as well as the star. Additional to his award winning television shows, Leno is the recipient of the People’s Choice Award and other honors, including the Harris Poll selection as most popular star on television. He also received a star on Hollywood’s Walk of Fame, has set several land speed records and became the first person to drive the pace car of all major NASCAR events.

A tireless performer, Leno loves to test his humor live on audiences across the nation, performing over 100 live appearances in nightclubs, theaters and stadiums each year. His “everyman” style and personality have helped him earn millions of fans worldwide, especially in the regions where people relate to his personable style and work ethic. He remains passionate about performing in front of live audiences, including the military, and appears regularly in Las Vegas, on college campuses around the United States and in many other venues.

When he is not performing, writing or doing charitable work, Leno keeps busy doing voice-over work in such movies as “Cars” and “Igor” and the hit TV show “The Fairly Oddparents.” He also is a much-in-demand corporate speaker and is a monthly columnist in “Popular Mechanics.” Leno enjoys working on his collection of classic cars and motorcycles as well.

Tickets for the 7:30 PM show will be sold through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. Order by phone at 330-259-0555, online at stambaughauditorium.com, or in person. The box office is open Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium, which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall, which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (Anne K. Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional events many of which use the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office to sell and distribute tickets. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
