HEADLINE: Dana Chamber Orchestra is scheduled for Sunday, February 1, 2015- Stambaugh Auditorium

Youngstown, OH...The Dana School of Music announces a concert by the Dana Chamber Orchestra, Joseph Kromholz, Director, on Sunday, February 1, 2015, 4:00 p.m. at Stambaugh Auditorium, 1000 Fifth Avenue, Youngstown, OH.

The concert will feature classical favorites by Mozart, Mendelssohn and Barber. The Chamber Orchestra features primarily works for strings orchestra and other small orchestrations.

Joseph Kromholz, Director of the Orchestra, said, "The Chamber Orchestra features many of Dana's brightest students whose participation in the orchestra is by audition or invitation only. Sometimes the ensemble includes faculty or guest artists, with whom the students work side by side." He further noted that it is a quasi-professional group, in the sense that it prepares on an accelerated timeline (rather than all semester), and that it is intended to be partially self-directed -- led increasingly by the students, rather than just top-down.

Tickets are only available at the door, and are $5 for adults; $4 for senior citizens and students. Tickets are free for anyone with a valid YSU ID. More information is available by calling the Dana School of Music at 330-941-3636.
