Let Me Serenade You
One Man Band

Pieces of April
Try A Little Tenderness
Til The World Ends
Play Something Sweet
(Brickyard Blues)

This will be Three Dog Night's first full performance in Youngstown in over a decade. The band's members have changed throughout the years, but founding members Cory Wells and Danny Hutton have remained constants. Original guitarist Michael Allsup, Paul Kingery (bass & vocals), and Pat Bautz (drums) complete the group.

Three Dog Night recorded music by "undiscovered" writers at the time including Harry Nilsson, Randy Newman, Elton John, Laura Nyro, Paul Williams, and Hoyt Axton. Three Dog Night recently recorded with the London Symphony Orchestra at the famous Abbey Road studios in London. This pairing coincided with the groups 35th Anniversary. They have added new songs to their repertoire by releasing their first double-A sided single in almost 25 years.

After a brief hiatus in the late 1970s, a reunion in the early 80s kept them touring internationally. Since 1986, they have performed over 2,200 shows including two Super Bowls. Their touring schedule includes over 70 dates per year.

Tickets for this concert are available to the public on Friday, August 7th at 10AM. For more information or for tickets, visit stambaughauditorium.com or call the Stambaugh Auditorium Box Office at 330-259-0555.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (The Anne Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional entertainment events. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
